a. Report of Officers

i. Chief Justice, Sam Bruketta

Chief Justice Bruketta said he is continuing to oversee some of the projects the other justices are working on.

He is currently working on getting speakers to come to the university. One is board of trustees Chairman Trachow possibly coming on Friday October 14th. Bruketta said he would probably have everything finalized in the next few days and would email his council. The speaker is coming to talk about law school and the future of law school. Trachow was on the Nevada state bar so he would be a good contact for many pre-law students.

Another project Chief Justice Bruketta was working on was a court house tour.

ii. Associate Justice, Tharanpreet Chahal

Justice Chahal had been working with Justice Fleming had been working on the internship program. The interviews for everyone who applied would be October 7th. They had not determined all the times of the interviews yet. There needed to be three justices at each interview so she asked the council to keep their time available that day.

iii. Associate Justice, Corbett Fleming

If you would like a copy of any of the agenda items listed, please contact Chief Justice Bruketta at chiefjustice@asun.unr.edu

Justice Fleming said he got the times for three of the four interviews. The interviews were scheduled for 2:30pm, 3pm, and 3:30pm but the interview times could change.

He was still waiting on a reply from one of the applicants.

Associate Justice Fleming asked if the application was still open.

Chief Justice Bruketta said yes, the application would remain open for a few more days.

Associate Justice Fleming said he would continue to work through the applications as they came in. He was expecting a few more applicants.

iv. Associate Justice, Taylor Stichauf

Associate Justice Stichauf said she was working on a mediation program. She had a meeting with Margaret Crowley and Rita Laden. They looked into other schools programs and tried to determine the best way to format the mediation program for the university.

She said everyone would have to go through 40 hours of mediation training and that is where extended studies comes in. The funding estimates are needed and she plans on having 24 mediators to start off with.

v. Associate Justice, Meikin Gasuad

Associate Justice Gasuad said he had been working on flyers to educate the student body that anyone can bring up cases against another student.

He hoped to make an easy flowchart poster to help students understand how to file a case.

7. PUBLIC COMMENT

None.

8. ADJOURNMENT

Chief Justice Bruketta adjourned the meeting at 2:41pm.
