Dear Speaker Jackson and Senators of the Associated Students,

Due to reasons concerning availability and preoccupation, I am resigning as the senator for the College of Agriculture, Biotechnology, and Natural Resources. I do not believe that I may serve my constituents nor the university to the extent that they deserve. Many of you have the passion and capacity to do a great service to this campus, and I have the utmost faith in your ability to elect another senator whose qualities parallel your own to fill my vacancy. I would like to thank each of you for influencing me to be more civically engaged and literate, and I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

Brennan Sullivan
