5. OLD BUSINESS

- a. Liaison positions and updates

Senator Rogers said she would talk to Dr. Beattie about moving buildings and grounds. The official list they had currently was buildings and grounds, parking and transportation, campus planning, university housing, fraternity and sorority life, promotion of Senate, and student legal services. If anyone wanted to be added to the committee she was going to go over them again. For parking and transportation they had Senator Davenport and Senator Ampicé.

Senator Doyle said he would take campus planning.

Senator Rogers said she wanted to make sure everything was covered. She asked if Senator Doyle was still good with construction.

Senator Doyle said yes he wanted to work with all facilities.

Senator Donohue volunteered to do University housing.

Senator Rogers said last year it got confusing with university housing. To clarify, university housing was who was running the dorms and things like that. She thought it would be a great thing to work with because a lot of students were worried about the healthy options.

Senator Donohue volunteered.

Senator Rogers said they would only be working with the fraternities and sororities that the campus recognized. There was still many types like the cultural and business sororities and fraternities that they could give a voice to.

Dr. Beattie said that they could go on the ASUN website where all the recognized fraternities and sororities were listed.

Senator Rogers said correct. They had to be creative about how to get their voices heard.

Dr. Beattie said there was a business and engineering organization.

Senator Ampié volunteered.

Senator Rogers said she wanted to bring a little bit more focus on the student departments and organizations. She asked the committee to think about the organizations that were underrepresented.
