6. NEW BUSINESS

a. Health Week Budget Proposal

President Martinez sought a motion to approve agenda item 6a.

Director Jordan moved to approve agenda item 6a.

Attorney General Moore seconded.

President Martinez yielded the floor to former President Jackson.

Former President Hannah Jackson said some of her presentation was kind of extra because it included some past budget. She was willing to answer questions about the extra parts.

Director Jordan said they only anticipated one was the video expense. They had to pay a videographer for his services.

The proposal passed.

b. ADL Workshop Budget Proposal

President Martinez sought a motion to approve agenda item 6b.

Attorney General Moore moved to approve agenda item 6b.

Director Lensch seconded.

Former President Hannah Jackson said they had been working on this for a few months now. This contract would deal with getting outside facilitators that were coming out from Las Vegas. They were partnering on them with this. For transparency reasons they wanted to pass this through this body too.

The proposal passed.

7. PUBLIC COMMENT

Director Amerzada said she talked to Mes today about potentially getting a forum for orientation. She is not sure how much it will be implemented, since it is hard to get new things into that program.

President Jackson said even if it doesn't work in that format they could do other things to push it. Director Jickling said it was earth week and she had sent out an email of some events that they could attend. Specifically, Wednesday evening there was going to be presentations by some faculty members. There were also events on GivePulse.

President Martinez said he wanted to remind them to let him know of any projects that were going on. Since he was now going to have the President's email, many things that went through central station was also going to go through him.

Former President Hannah Jackson said it would be awesome if there was a large showing to support the new officers tomorrow. It was going to be really important to get the feedback to further institutionalize their training moving forward.

8. ADJOURNMENT

The President's Cabinet meeting was adjourned at 8:12 p.m
