RE: Budget Request to Fund Kindle Gift Cards for Students Placed in Quarantine

Residential life is cultivating care packages for dorm-residing students sent to quarantine due to COVID-19. Nathan Ochocinski, the Residential Life COVID Coordinator, is leading this initiative with help from student services such as the counseling center.

Students stuck in isolation are being confronted with feelings of boredom and loneliness, which is why I want to contribute 50, $10 Amazon Kindle gift cards to the packages. These gift cards can be used on Amazon or Amazon Kindle, with the intention of being able to purchase a book to read. The Amazon and Amazon Kindle apps can be accessed on any electronic device. They can be found here.

To complete this task, I am asking for a $500 contribution from the Executive Board Operating fund.

I appreciate your consideration, as this contribution will be vital in supporting students facing the difficulties associated with attending college during a pandemic.

Respectfully,

Parker Samuelson

Director of Campus Wellness
