- d. Report of the Chief of Internal Affairs, Jada Maglinao
 - Chief of Internal Affairs Maglinao reported on her recent meeting with Blue Crew, wherein they discussed tentative plans for the UNR homecoming game. She also stated that she had been planning Howl Fest and mentioned her recent meeting with the University Athletics Committee, who sat on the Faculty Senate. She also discussed the recent ASUN executive social and her plans for Home Means Nevada Day.
- e. Report of the Attorney General, Jakob Schein
 - There was no report from AG Schein at the time.
- f. Report of the Director of IDEA, Trace Wolfgang
 - Director Wolfgang announced an event in Gateway Plaza that day commemorating National Coming Out Day. They also outlined their department's recent Indigenous Peoples Day celebration with the Multicultural Center. They listed several tentative events that the department had planned for the coming weeks, all in collaboration with the Multicultural Center.
- g. Report of the Director of Clubs and Orgs, Tre Taylor
 - Director Taylor stated that his department would be spending the coming week assembling initial event plans for the coming semester. He continued that he had been changing club brokers that handled services like ticketing and concessions, and that he was researching new ways to spend future funding for the department.
- h. Report of the Director of Programming, Maria Zamudio
 - Director Zamudio announced that Homecoming would be taking place during the following week and that she was seeking volunteers for these events. She stated that her department would be holding a meeting that day and that they would soon be discussing plans for a Cookies and Complaints event.
- i. Report of the Campus and Public Relations, Carlos Lara
 - Director Lara reminded the directors to submit pictures of their departments to be included in a Meet the Departments campaign on Instagram. He also reported that promotional stickers for the Home Means Nevada event had been ordered from InkBlot. He discussed his plans to coordinate ASUN media trainings and announced that he would be giving a short media training at the following Cabinet meeting. President Stanfill asked if InkBlot could be asked to create promotional materials for specific shows on Wolf Pack Radio. Directors Lara and Wolfgang explained that a template could be made to make materials for all Wolf Pack Radio shows, but that InkBlot and Wolf Pack Radio representatives would need to meet and arrange this.
- j. Report of the Director of Campus Wellness, Boris Carpio Guerra
 - Director Carpio Guerra stated that the Department of Wellness would be collaborating with the Department of Government Affairs to plan an election-oriented wellness event on campus. He added that his department would be planning events to promote occupational and financial wellness during the month of November. Lastly, he announced that he would be collaborating with Chief of Staff Martinez and the executive interns to facilitate their Wellness Through Community event.
- k. Report of the Director of Government Affairs, Amanda Vaskov
 - Director Vaskov discussed President Stanfill's resolution to grant students some access to the NSHE Board of Regents' agenda. She stated that the resolution would need to be passed by the Nevada Student Alliance after being passed by the Senate Body. She also announced her department's event that day, wherein students would get to ask questions of the Nevada Attorney General. She also mentioned her plans to coordinate transportation and order materials from InkBlot to prepare for the Nevada Legislative Session.
- l. Report of the Director of Sustainability, Chris Rowe

- Director Rowe announced that there would be a fall tree planting event on Saturday, October 15 at 10am in the Silver 16 parking lot on campus. He invited Cabinet members to attend and explained that he had not been given enough notice to create marketing materials for the event.
- m. Report of the Speaker of the Senate, Andrew Thompson
 - Speaker Thompson stated that the senatorial candidates for the College of Business would be asked to give their presentations during the October 26 Senate meeting. He continued that he was attempting to have more Senators attend ASUN events and President Stanfill suggested promoting these events to ASUN interns, as well.
- n. Report of the Chief Justice, Zane Taylor
 - Chief Justice Taylor announced that the next day's Judicial Council meeting had been moved to the Knowledge Center Room 110 with AG Schein's approval. He also stated that he would be unavailable to field Judicial Council concerns for the next several days and to contact other justices regarding any questions or issues.

6. OLD BUSINESS

a. Home Means Nevada

- President Stanfill announced that Home Means Nevada Day would be held on October 31 in commemoration of Nevada Day. She outlined her and CIA Maglinao's plans to create Nevada pendants for students at the De La Mare library. She also stated all necessary credit card orders had been placed and that the Student Events Advisory Board had approved the event. She discussed opportunities for ASUN interns to participate in the event and added that ASUN would be contacting the UNR Multicultural Center about the possibility of including Indigenous community members and traditions into the event. Director Vaskov announced that she had budget for coffee to serve three hundred students in anticipation of her Coffee with Councilors event, which would be held on the Knowledge Center Lawn at the same time as the Home Means Nevada event. CIA Maglinao, Director Vaskov, and President Stanfill discussed the logistics of separating the Home Means Nevada craft activity from the Coffee With Councilors event. President Stanfill clarified that President Sandoval would be attending the event, as well. She discussed her plans to redesign the ASUN Presidential Seal, per her responsibilities in the SAS. Lastly, she and the Cabinet discussed her idea of changing the name of McCarran Boulevard to a name representing UNR, as the name McCarran commemorates an antisemitic person.

b. Canada Hall Fall Festival

- Chief of Staff Martinez detailed the executive interns' plans to provide Student Activities at Canada Hall's Fall Festival. She invited the Cabinet and other ASUN officers to volunteer at the event, which was scheduled for October 23. She stated that she would put the event on the ASUN Events Calendar.

7. NEW BUSINESS

a. ASUN/CSE Technology Discussion

- President Stanfill explained that this agenda item would be postponed until the following week's meeting.

b. State of the Association Address

- President Stanfill detailed the itinerary of the State of the Association Address. She stated that the event would begin at 3:30, after which President Sandoval and Mayor Schieve would each give short speeches. She continued that this would be followed by a ten minute speech from herself. She added that refreshments would be available to attendees and that President Sandoval would be present at the event until 5:30.

Tangentially, CIA Maglinao stated that the Cabinet would be granted access to the ASUN events calendar so that they could post events on behalf of their departments.

c. Cabinet Collaboration

- Discussion: Chief of Staff Martinz stated that she wished to form a working group to planned events for ASUN's 125th Anniversary. She also stated that she wished to create an official group for UNR alumni who graduated from UNR. She explained that networking between current and former ASUN officers could help facilitate smoother operations and more engaging events for ASUN. Director Vaskov announced that she had recently sent communication to collaborate a working group to plan ASUN events around the upcoming Nevada Legislative Session. Director Vaskov announced that Nevada Day would be on Saturday, October 29, and that she wished to bring several students to attend the Nevada Day Parade. She and President Stanfill discussed the logistics of transporting UNR students to the parade. Director Wolfgang discussed the idea of ASUN alumni coming to campus to train current ASUN officers.
