RE: Censure for August 11th, 2025 Meeting

Dear Senator Moore,

I am writing to formally inform you that, pursuant to the 93rd Session Senate Rules of the Associated Students, I have found reasonable cause to initiate the censure process. This is due to your accumulation of six (6) attendance points over the course of the summer.

Specifically, you were absent from the following Senate meetings:

- June 11th
- July 9th
- July 30th

Each unexcused absence results in two (2) points, bringing your total to six (6) points. This exceeds the five-point threshold which, in accordance with Rule II(f), requires a formal censure process.

Per Rule II – Membership of the Senate, subsection (f) Attendance and Accountability:

(2) The Committee on Oversight shall conduct a hearing once a senator has accumulated five (5) points. At this hearing, the senator shall have the opportunity to present oral or written testimony regarding their absences. The Committee will determine whether the absences warrant disciplinary action and may excuse points if a reasonable explanation is provided.

Accordingly, the Committee on Oversight will hold a hearing on Monday, August 11, 2025, at 1:30 PM in the Frankie Sue Del Papa Conference Room. You are encouraged to attend and present any testimony or documentation regarding your absences.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need further clarification.
